AGREED REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF OPPOSITION PERIOD

NOW COMES Potential Opposer, WILHELM SIHN JR. KG, by its attorneys, and hereby requests a further thirty (30) day extension from the present close of the opposition period, to and including May 23, 2003, within which to seek to resolve the potential Opposition to the above identified application for trademark registration or consider the filing of an Opposition Petition.

The additional time is requested so that the parties may explore possibilities of settlement to avoid the need for an opposition proceeding. The parties through counsel have already been in contact regarding considering possible settlement of this matter. Additional time is needed to review possible information, consider facts and review a possible resolution of this matter by counsel and their respective clients.

Approval for this extension was provided by counsel representing the Applicant.

This extension is not for the purpose of delay.

This extension is being submitted in triplicate.
